DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-6, drawn to a process.

Group II, claim(s) 7-16, drawn to an installation.

The inventions listed as Groups I and II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: Group I does not share the special technical features of a mixer, palletizing device, or granulating drum, among others, of Group II.

During a telephone conversation with Robert C. Faber on 9/16/2008 a provisional election was made with traverse to prosecute the invention of Group I, claims 1-6.

Affirmation of this election must be made by applicant in replying to this Office action.

Claims 7-16 are withdrawn from further consideration by the examiner, 37

CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a non-elected invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Claim Objections

Claim 5 is objected to because of the following informalities: "grandules" in line 4 is assumed to be "granules." Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 5 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. The word "desirable" in line 4 does not clearly define the stage. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1 and 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Komatsu et al (JP 60052533 A). Komatsu clearly teaches that iron ore powder, lime powder, and coke powder are mixed in a primary mixer, and that returned ore is then added to this material and then made into pellets and sintered (Derwent abstract).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 3-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Komatsu et al (JP 60052533 A). Komatsu teaches that the returned ore (as stated above) is mixed with the premixed ore, addition, and binder at the inlet side of a second mixer, where granulation takes place. The fact that the mixture takes place at the inlet side of the second mixer allows the mixture to take place right before or sometime during granulation. Mixing and granulation can occur simultaneously, and it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to mix the returned ore at any point of granulation in order to achieve the results desired.

Regarding claim 6, it is well known in the art that mixing can take place with a "mixing tool," where movement takes place between the container and the mixing tool. Additionally, it would have been obvious for the mixing step to be carried out in a manner that would provide desired results, and "intensive" mixing would be subject to the process specifications.
